NEFE's High School Financial Planning Program (HSFP) has improved the financial literacy of millions of students across the country for nearly 30 years. Each workshop offers award-winning, noncommercial curriculum which aligns with state and national standards and provides easy-to-use lesson plans as well as free instructor manuals and workbooks for every student.

At this training you will:

- ▶ Be introduced to all program materials
- ▶ Explore the HSFP lessons
- ▶ Gain confidence in teaching the program
- ▶ Learn how to add value to student learning
- ▶ Find out how to get your free classroom materials

Who should attend:

- ▶ Teachers responsible for personal finance instruction
- ▶ Volunteers who co-teach the HSFP
- ▶ Parents or instructors of homeschoolers
- ▶ Mentors or leaders involved in facilitating personal finance education

MSU is an affirmative-action equal opportunity employer. Michigan State University Extension programs and materials are open to all without regard to race, color, national origin, gender, gender identity, religion, age, height, weight, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, material status, family status or veteran status.

Practical lifelong skills for teens • Free instructor materials and student workbooks • Easy-to-use lesson plans • Aligned with academic standards
