Description:
- Property Details: The document provides detailed information about properties, including parcel numbers, addresses, and tax values. It lists the owners' names, addresses, and the values for various types of taxes. The document indicates the process of tax assessment and the distribution of tax burdens among different categories such as schools, roads, and other public services.
- Taxes: The document lists various taxes such as school aid, sink, debt, and operating taxes, along with the amounts associated with each tax category.
- Property Information: Each property is identified by a unique parcel number, and the valuations are provided for different tax categories. The valuations are used to calculate the tax amounts.

The document is a tax roll for the year 2016, covering properties in the St. Clair County, MI. It includes information on property owners, addresses, and the amounts due for various tax categories.
