

Farming Operations

A view of the farm looking west. The county operated a large farm until 1962.

A view of the horse barn looking east. This barn is still standing today.

Horses were use for all farming operations up until 1962.

Some of the outbuildings. The building to the left served as a general store for residents.

Sleigh rides were a popular winter activity.

Powerful draft horses were used on the farm for a variety of projects.