

ATTACHMENT TO UNIFORM CHILD SUPPORT ORDER
DEVIATION LANGUAGE

Case Number: _____

Case Name: _____

IT IS ORDERED that _____ is ordered to pay monthly support pursuant to the Michigan Child Support Formula as follows:

No. Minors	General Child Support	Ins. Adj. (+ or -)	Adj. Child Support	Ordinary Health Care	Child Care	TOTAL

This amount shall charge in the event that TANF assistance is received for the minor child(ren), if Medicaid only received then only Ordinary Health Care will charge, or upon request of either party.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED pursuant to the Formula, mother shall pay _____ % and father _____ % the uninsured medical expenses for the minor child(ren), with the annual amount for ordinary medical at $357.00 per child.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the following property or other consideration was provided to payee from payer in lieu of child support:

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that it would be unjust or inappropriate to set support pursuant to Formula because: _____, and parties agree to deviate from the Michigan Child Support Formula as of _____ the payer shall pay child support as follows:

No. Minors	General Child Support	Ins. Adj. (+ or -)	Adj. Child Support	Ordinary Health Care	Child Care	TOTAL

The difference between this amount and the above formula amount reflects how the support order deviates from the formula.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that arrearage owed to payee on the following account(s) is:

_____ Child Support _____preserved or _____cancelled/eliminated
 _____ Child Care _____preserved or _____cancelled/eliminated
 _____ Medical _____preserved or _____cancelled/eliminated
 _____ Spousal/Alimony _____preserved or _____cancelled/eliminated
 (Any overpayment reflected on the accounts will be eliminated)

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that child support shall stop the last day of the month after a minor child's eighteenth birthday. If child support is continued due to high school attendance, child support shall stop the last day of the month after sufficient credits have been earned for graduation.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that child care shall stop effective the date that it is no longer incurred. Upon notice to the Friend of Court, a proposed order will be sent to the parties with an objection notice. If child care is no longer being incurred, the order shall enter.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that paragraph number 10 (Redirection and Abatement) from the Uniform Child Support Order, is clarified to include the following provision; Friend of Court shall abate support charges for a child who resides on a full-time basis with the payer of support, or with a person who does not have legal standing or is not providing foster care; Modification or reinstatement under this provision shall be effective the date of the change necessitating the redirection or abatement or reinstatement. Support shall abate when a payer is incarcerated for 7 or more days without income, assets, or availability for work release effective the date the Friend of Court has notification of incarceration.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that child support, child care and ordinary health care shall again charge effective the date the payer is released from incarceration or upon the payer's receipt of income of any kind. Base support shall charge $25.00 and ordinary health care shall charge $15.00 monthly. For cases with more than one child, base support shall remain at $25.00 monthly, and ordinary health care shall charge 50% of the yearly ordinary medical amount of $357.00 per child. The case shall then be set for a review of support. All newly established cases shall be set for a review upon the payer's release from incarceration.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED in the event a temporary uniform support order (UCSO) enters in a pending divorce action, and there is a pre-existing UCSO in a prior action involving the same parents (same county), support in the prior action shall stop charging on the effective date of the temporary UCSO with all arrearages preserved. Upon entry of Judgment of Divorce and final UCSO, all child support arrearages that accrued under the prior action shall be preserved and incorporated in the divorce matter, unless specifically waived. In the event the pending divorce action is dismissed, then support and arrearages shall not reinstate under the prior action, unless requested by either party or if cash assistance is being received. Upon reinstatement, the Friend of Court shall conduct a review.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if confinement has been previously established, the medical account for confinement expense shall charge $25.00 per month until the total expense owed has been charged. All amounts charged are considered past due medical arrears.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the payer of support shall, in addition to all current charges and fees, make monthly payments on the arrearage in accordance with the Michigan Child Support Formula in an amount equal to two percent of the arrearage, but not greater than half the current monthly charging amount and not less than $50 per month.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that direct payment credit will not be given on the account if such payment is made when a cash TANF grant and/or Medicaid is being received on behalf of the minor child(ren). If a full TANF grant is received, and the parties do not reside together, or if the either party submits a written request, support will again charge through St. Clair County Friend of the Court. All balances owed to the State of Michigan, unless otherwise ordered, are preserved.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if either party to this case has insurance available at a reasonable cost as determined by the Friend of the Court pursuant to 2013 Michigan Child Support Formula 3.05, said party shall provide insurance so long as it is available as a benefit of employment or if available at that cost. Upon change of circumstance regarding the availability of health insurance for the minor child(ren) at a reasonable cost, EACH parent is required to obtain insurance for the minor child(ren) if available at a reasonable cost. To reflect any insurance adjustment on the support order, a motion must be filed (or if 3 years have passed since entry of the current support order, a review may be requested.)

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that orders between the same parties to this action may be incorporated in regards to any and all Friend of Court actions.
